

Moment of Blessing

Occasion of Homicide

GREETING

Grace and Peace to all of us in the name of our Loving God. We stand on holy ground – for God is with us, doing what God always does, calling forth life, especially here, especially now. Immanuel is the God who is with us always and everywhere! There is nowhere we can flee God’s presence and nothing can separate us from God’s love – not tragedy, not violence not even death. This is why we reclaim this space as a place of life, community, hope and forgiveness. Yes, even the violence that has occurred here is being reclaimed in love, and called forth as holy witness to life itself.

DECLARATION

We come together in this space and at this time of grief, acknowledging the violent act committed against our [sister(s)/brother(s)] _____.

We confess that this tragedy is part of a wider failure to create safe communities that are humane, compassionate, just, and filled with dignity and hope for all.

PRAYER

We ask that God may grant us peace.
That in our pain we may find comfort,
That in our confusion we may find a measure of understanding,
That in our anger we may find forgiveness,
That in our sorrow we may find hope,
That in the aftermath of fear we may find strength and healing.

Come Holy Spirit and baptize us again in the sea of your love, where we release our useless fears and relax into your mercy. Inside this new love we die to all that is false. By your power made perfect in weakness, awaken us to the mystery of life and speak to us again the truth of our deepest identity hidden in you. “You are my child whom I love with you I am well pleased.”

OUR CITIES CRY
TO YOU
To the tune of Amazing Grace

Our cities cry to you, O God
Out from the pain and strife,
You made us for yourself alone
But we chose alien life.

Yet still you walk the streets, O Christ!
We know your presence here,
Where humble people love and serve
In godly grace and fear.

Our goals are pleasure, gold and power
Injustice stalks our earth,
In vain we seek for rest, for joy,
For sense of human worth.

O Word made flesh be seen in us
May all we say and do
Affirm you God incarnate still,
And turn all hearts to you.

ISAIAH 61:1-4
(ADAPTED)

The Spirit of the Sovereign Lord is on me because the Lord has anointed me to proclaim good news to the poor.
He has sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim freedom for the captives and release from darkness for the prisoners, to proclaim the year of the Lord's favor and the day of vengeance of our God.
to comfort all who mourn, and provide for those who grieve in Zion – to bestow on them a crown of beauty instead of ashes,
the oil of joy instead of mourning,
and a garment of praise instead of a spirit of despair.
They will be called oaks of righteousness, a planting of the Lord for the display of his splendor.
They will rebuild the ancient ruins and restore the places long devastated.
They will renew the cities that have been devastated for generations.

PRAYER FOR THE NEIGHBORHOOD *

LEADER You are the God who has set us in families and clans and tribes, in communities and in cities. We give you thanks this day that you are Lord of the city of _____ and Lord of this very neighborhood.

PRAYER FOR THE

LEADER *We pray for the city of _____ today, and we pray for this neighborhood...
and for neighborhoods like it in Jerusalem, Baghdad, Moscow, and a thousand other villages in your cities around the world.*

*In all of our cities this day...
there will be violence, crime and sharp moneymaking,
and also compassion and forgiveness and generosity,
and leaders who work for both justice and injustice.*

ALL Be our God this day and prosper in the city of _____.
We pray in the name of the One who wept over the city.
Amen.

RECLAIMING RITUAL — BLESSING OF THE WATER

LEADER We come together this day to reclaim this space of death as a place of life. This place where violence occurred we are reclaiming as a place of peace. This place that causes fear, anger, and pain, we are reclaiming as a place of hope and community. We reclaim the humanity of both victim and victimizer in God's name.

(WATER IS SPRINKLED ON THOSE PRESENT)

Leader: Come, Holy Spirit, to this place. As we sprinkle this water, come Holy Spirit, and redeem this space and people from the pain and violence that occurred here. Return it as a safe place, a place of love, a place of life, a place of hope. Amen.

ALL That which was taken away from us by violence, we reclaim as a place of life, community, and hope. We pledge to work toward a world free from violence and self-destruction and full of love and hope. We commit ourselves to building community that is humane, compassionate, just, and filled with dignity.

BENEDICTION LEADER Our service is ended. As we leave this place, our prayer is that each of us might act in some way to uphold the dignity of every person – so that all would see that violence will not prevail in our community and peace will endure.

Beloved of God, may we go on our day with the courage to love. Return no one evil for evil. Strengthen the faint-hearted. Support the weak. Love one another as God loves you. As this is home to the trauma and healing of our [sister(s)/brother(s)] _____, it is also home to God. God blesses both this space and _____.

The Spirit of the Lord is upon us because we have been anointed to announce good news to the poor, to proclaim release to the captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to let the oppressed go free, and to declare the year of the Lord's favor.

We pray all of this in the name of the Father who is for us, the Son who is with us, and the Spirit who unites us all in the never-ending dance of love. Amen.

ALL Thanks be to God.
