

2016 ANNUAL REPORT

street psalms

We start a new fiscal year with immense gratitude for all the ways that God has allowed us to develop incarnational leaders across our global network. We are doing our part to train the head, heart and hands of urban leaders to love their city and seek its peace. A big portion of our gratitude is for you—collaborating with us in such fruitful work.

By definition, incarnational ministry is about people, not numbers. However, as our fiscal year comes to a close, we wanted to share a quantifiable snapshot of all the work you have made possible over the last twelve months.

We have one objective—to develop incarnational leaders. The primary delivery system for our training is the Urban Training Collaborative (UTC)—a joint initiative that includes Leadership Foundations and Christian Reformed World Missions. Street Psalms is the managing partner of the initiative that spans 100 cities globally. In the last year:

Of our Training Hubs worldwide offered informal and formal accredited training programs.

Leaders representing 35 cities participated in our weeklong UTC Synergy Summit in Guatemala in November, 2015.

Leaders were trained through our Hubs.

Leaders and friends engaged in our weekly "Word From Below" email devotional.

Families were impacted by leaders and organizations trained by the UTC.

FINANCIAL

INCOME FY16	$547,077
Corporations	52,350
Church	27,740
Individuals	385,415
Foundations	58,230
Earned Income	23,342

We were also generously supported by $215,000 of in-kind services donated by Christian Reformed World Missions, Leadership Foundations, and Matt Jensen Marketing.

EXPENSES FY16	$561,143
Training	173,151
Training Resources	116,020
Administration	45,409
Capacity Grants	226,563

Street Psalms' contribution of $762,077 (direct and in-kind income) is leveraging $614,000 from UTC hubs for a total impact of $1,376,077 dedicated to training leaders for city transformation.