

Forgiving Victim Series: Part 1

Welcome & Introduction

Street Psalms frees leaders to love and serve in the shape of a Community in Mission (CiM).

- We have built a suite of written resources to cultivate that vision.
 - Hermeneutic, Incarnational Framework, CiM, Methodology, and Design.
- Many other formats - workshops, lectionary resources, initiatives such as Preaching Peace tables. All are designed to help CiMs come alive in their efforts to free up others.

Focus Today

Building on the Introduction to the Hermeneutic workshop, we dive more deeply into Jesus as the Forgiving Victim and how mimetic anthropology animates this hermeneutical lens.

Today's Workshop

- Part 1: Walk to Emmaus

Jesus as a living hermeneutic

Breakout room conversations to follow

- Part 2: Mimetic Anthropology

How it animates this hermeneutical lens

Q & A and larger group discussion to follow

- Part 3: Embodiment

Why does this matter personally? To Preaching?

- Closing and Announcements

Today's Workshop

- Part 2: Mimetic Anthropology

How it animates this hermeneutical lens

Q & A and larger group discussion to follow

- Part 3: Embodiment

Why does this matter personally? To Preaching?

- Closing and Announcements

Small Group Discussion Questions

1. What does the “alongsidedness” of God mean to you?
2. How do you find yourself in this story? How do you experience it – not think about or understand it intellectually?
